Woman Sergeant Charged for Uttering Forged Documents

On Saturday, July 20, 2019 Woman Sergeant Duliet McKay of the Kingston Central Division was charged for the Offence of Uttering Forged Document following a ruling from the Director of Public Prosecution (DPP).

Allegations are that between 2011 and 2012, the complainant solicited the help of Woman Sergeant McKay regarding getting the divorce finalized. The Woman Sergeant agreed to help and told the complainant that the process will cost Six Hundred and Fifty US Dollars ($650.00US) to which the complainant agreed.

Several months later the Sergeant informed the complainant that everything was finalized and divorce decree papers known as the Absolute Decree was ready. Both parties met at an agreed location where the exchange took place. However, when the Absolute Decree was used as documentation to prove that the two were divorced it was discovered that it was forged.

A report was made to MOCA and a file prepared and submitted to the Office of the Director of Public Prosecution (ODPP), who ruled the Woman Sergeant McKay be charged for Breaching the Forgery Act. She was brought before the Kingston and St. Andrew Parish Court on July 22, 2019, where she was offered bail in the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00) to return to court on September 19, 2019.
